Memorial gardens

Cremated remains can be interred only in a memorial garden. Cremated remains cannot be scattered on purchased graves. Thurrock Council has memorial gardens within:

- Chadwell St Mary Cemetery
- Corringham Cemetery
- North Stifford Cemetery

Memorial plaques

Memorial plaques can be provided for a fixed-term lease of 7 years, after which time you can apply for the lease to be renewed.

A small Perspex plaque – about 15cm by 10cm (6 inches by 4 inches) – will be fixed to the wall or kerbing bordering the memorial area.

New plaques will be allocated the next available space on the wall or kerbing.

The plaques can be inscribed with short epitaphs of no more than 80 characters – that means 80 letters, numbers, spaces and punctuation marks in total.

The examples below may help you complete the required inscription on the application form.
